

ADAMS COUNTY VOLUNTEER EMERGENCY SERVICES ASSOCIATION

Annual Awards

EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Executive Officer of the year eligibility shall be from the elected Administrative Officers of the member company of the Adams County Volunteer Emergency Services Association (President, Vice President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Financial Secretary or Trustee. Others may be considered when the nomination is submitted with an explanation and job description of the elected position.) The nominee shall have displayed outstanding leadership within his or her company and made a significant change in the function of the Company. (I.e. better moral, better financial condition, better fellowship, etc.) Or improved community relations through programs of awareness that have benefited the Company. The award is limited to administrative officers as described above. The member may or may not be a riding member. The nominee cannot be an officer in the fire, rescue or EMS section of a company. Nominations must be submitted to the Award Committee no later than February 1st of each year.