

ADAMS COUNTY VOLUNTEER EMERGENCY SERVICES ASSOCIATION

Annual Awards

HALL OF FAME AWARD

PURPOSE: The HALL of FAME AWARD is to provide a permanent form of recognition for individuals, living or deceased, who have provided meritorious service or extra ordinary achievement to the Adams County Volunteer Emergency Services Association or its member companies.

RECOGNITION: All inductees will have their name engraved on a suitable Hall of Fame award plaque located in the ACVESA Training Center. A certificate and a lapel pin will be awarded to each individual and a photograph and article will be submitted to the appropriate local newspapers. Presentation of the award will be made at the awards banquet of the ACVESA.

ELIGIBILITY: The following criteria are required to be eligible for the Hall of Fame Award:

- Must have a minimum of 15 years of service in a member company of the ACVESA
- Must be a member in good standing of any member company of the ACVESA
- Automatically inducted if killed in the line of duty (does not affect the limit of inductees)

QUALIFICATIONS: In order to be nominated for a Hall of Fame Award, the following shall be considered:

- Performed distinguished service to the ACVESA for an extended period of time
- Performed distinguished service to the nominee's member company for extended period of time
- Provided exceptional performance while in an elected or appointed position of the ACVESA or member company

NOMINATIONS: Nominations may be made by ACVESA member companies. Nominations must be submitted in writing on the appropriate stationary and submitted to the Award Committee no later than February 1st of each year. There will be no limit on the number of times an individual may be nominated.

SELECTION: Beginning in the year 2012, no more than 3 individuals will be inducted to the Hall of Fame yearly. The selections will be made annually by the Award Committee. A quorum of the Award Committee members must be present and the nominees must receive a majority of votes to be inducted to the Hall of Fame. If there are less than 3 nominees submitted to the organization, the Award Committee may select an individual who qualifies for the award. The Committee's decision is final for the selection process and is not obligated to select the maximum number of inductees allowed in a given year.
